

Pages 11-12

The responsibility of the complainant as follows:

The responsibility of the complainant is to check the measurement and quality of the garment being produced by the Company.

Page 16

The question pertaining to whether we have issued an appointment letter to the Complainant is, yes we have issued an appointment letter to the complainant to work in our company.

To the question whether we have a copy of the said appointment letter is, yes we have keep a copy of the appointment letter we have rendered to the complainant. On need based, if required we are ready to produce it to the court. In the appointment letter we rendered, information pertaining to the Roles and responsibilities of the Complainant is stated. Yes we have not filed, produced the Complainant's appointment letter in this case. We have not mentioned on this Complainant's appointment letter during the case hearing. We also have not mentioned during the case hearing on the actual supervisory work the complainant carried out during his tenure