To April 26, 1961
All Members of the Working Committee of the AITUC

Sub: Grants-in-aid by Central Board
for Workers' Education

Dear Comrades,

You are aware that the AITUC had requested for grants-in-aid from the Central Board for Workers' Education for running the N.M.Joshi Memorial School of Trade Unions.

The Board, after protracted correspondence, has now agreed to grant Rs.10,000 for this purpose.

According to the rules of the Board, someone has to be authorised by the AITUC to sign an agreement on its behalf in this respect.

The Secretariat of the AITUC at its meeting held on April 24, 1961, decided that Com.T.B.Vittal Rao, M.P., Treasurer of the AITUC, should sign the agreement and that the sanction of the Working Committee be taken by a circular.

The following resolution is therefore proposed for adoption by you:

"Resolved that Com.T.B.Vittal Rao, the Treasurer, is authorised to sign the required agreement with the Central Board for Workers' Education, in respect of its grants to the AITUC and to do all that is needful in the matter."

You are requested to give your opinion on the above before 15th May 1961. If no reply is received by then from you, your consent to the resolution will be assumed.

With greetings,

Yours fraternally,

(S.A.DANGE)
